

The Good Book of Working of New Love

Love Peace Harmony

We are giving you this information so that you can understand clearly how the New Love once established within yourself will work. It will be called as, 'The working of New Love'. Once you are at the level of having all the energy of New Love, you must know how it will work within you and around you.

It will work like a small miracle. The whole atmosphere within and around you will change for the better. You will no longer feel sad, sorry, worry and think of depressing things & events and now be a truly positive person. The energy of New Love will destroy all the fears and negativity within you. You will be calm, focused and relaxed at all times. This will raise your vibrations to such an extent, that nothing or no one will be able to hurt you or affect you. With this power, you will lead a very peaceful and satisfying life, which will enable all good angels to be with you and guide you and help you to progress even further. Slowly all the traits which were bringing you down will vanish from your life forever and you will be the most positive and cheerful person around all. This way of living will inspire many others to take up this task of New Love and slowly it will spread from person to person to all of mankind and a new way of living will be established.

All good angels will be with all good people now and evil will have no way of influencing or hurting anyone. This will make them weak when completely ignored by mankind and they will leave earth forever, never to return, as the energy of New Love will be so powerful within all, that they will never even attempt to come back to earth again. We will all wait for this wonderful event to take place and a good welcome of these good souls awaits them when they return to the Spirit World. A joyous moment for mankind and an even joyous moment for God Almighty, as He welcomes all good souls back to His own New Universe, as all will be able to step into it very easily now. Rest assured, a big welcome will take place as the last soul enters heavens and good good angels will all unite and be as one with God Almighty as it was eons before, when God Almighty created earth. Earth will be a paradise for all who visit now, and many will go there to relax and enjoy and bring good vibrations to earth as well as to heavens.

As said before, the powers of New Love are the best and most wonderful powers anyone can have. They are the best, because you have love, peace and harmony within you. Once you have these, then nothing can harm you or affect you in any way. They will be a barrier for all types of evil and once firmly settled within, you will have the most astounding power of New Love with you, which is blessed by God Almighty Himself. No other power is as strong as this one and everyone will want to have it, but only few can do this slowly and steadily. Master it one by one in any order, so stay calm and focused and once you are achieving one of these elements, the other two will glide easily within you. Once all are achieved, they will work like a magic charm. Rest assured you will have a lot of problems and worries, but you will be in control this time and not let it affect you or your family in any way. Out of 10 people, only 1 will achieve it perfectly, so please acquire it correctly, as it is of no use getting half and then giving up.

Love, peace and harmony are like a smooth flow in the universe of New Love. Its power will glide into all human beings very smoothly and effectively. Be calm, patient and hardworking and all of you can achieve this soon. Once achieved by a majority, the whole world will change. There will be a smooth flow between all humans, and all will help each other to progress well and the greater the power, the better it will work for mankind. It will also work in a deep spiritual way too, as it will be very easy to contact us, once all the negativity is dissolved from you. Our help will be quicker and instantaneous in most cases. This rapid progress will enable mankind to achieve a new way of living and an era of New Love will usher in the world of New Love on good earth.

Love, peace and harmony moves with all our love to bring about a good change in the earth's working with the powers of New Love. It will work in a different manner as opposed to love, peace and harmony on individual basis. Individually each element is not strong enough to withstand evil, but combined together, they can defeat and fight off any evil. So it's a new way of getting protection against all kinds of evil. Rest assured we will guide you all to be in a good position to do this well.

All are waiting for all to achieve this, as once achieved, all will be powerful themselves to fight off all evils. Our work too will be reduced drastically, but we will always be there to guide and progress you well. Our function is to help you to get closer to God Almighty as quickly as possible, so that is our main objective. With the powers of New Love it will be much easier and faster too for you to accomplish this, so it works out well for all of us. Be strong physically and mentally and work well to achieve this well.

We are welcoming the progress of few who are already on this path. After a bit of work, it will become second nature to them to live in love, peace and harmony. Once it sets in, it will expand to all other people too, as the vibrations created by these people will overpower the bad ones in others and they too will be ready to take up this energy of New Love. Working of New Love will be as a miracle of new energy on this earth. It will work seamlessly with all the energies which will be discovered by mankind.

Love, peace and harmony moves with the blessings of God Almighty, so these three elements are powered by God Almighty Himself. These are the very basic and important elements which are very powerful in the Spirit World, as there is only love, peace and harmony over there. No negativity is prevalent in our world as well as no evil of any kind. All good souls are always in love, peace and harmony with each other, so now God Almighty wishes earth to follow the same rules too, so that the earth and people on earth prosper too. All good living things on earth must now acquire these three elements if they wish to get closer to God Almighty. The whole earth will be in balance once it is achieved and then earth will flourish as it was supposed to be. Evil will not have any chance of returning to this good earth ever, as God Almighty has made plans for it to be completely removed from earth and once removed, it will and cannot come back to earth ever.

We are waiting for New Love to start and then spread to all good people of this earth. The era of New Love will start only when many have taken up and achieved the energy of New Love - then the working of New Love will begin, which will amaze all the good people of this earth. It's energy will be so good and peaceful and beautiful, that the whole atmosphere of this good earth will change. People will no longer lust and run after good things in life but will work together to achieve peace & harmony all over the world. Many will come together from different fields of sciences, culture, music and will all join together to make this earth a better place to live. Gone are the days of people being unkind and pushing each other to get to the top. All will work in unity and achieve a world of love, peace and harmony.

Good things will now present itself on earth and new creatures and creations will evolve to make life on earth very good. All people will live as one people of good earth and soon the rest of the population will also achieve the good energy of New Love. Slowly the world will progress in the way God Almighty wishes it to be. All will love all and there will be no distinction between different castes and creeds and the world will change so much for the better.

The working of New Love is something never ever seen before on good earth and it will transform earth into a new paradise where all will want to live in it and be a part of it, to create and spread good vibrations to all. Never mind who will live at that time, but be assured that only those chosen by God Almighty Himself will be present on earth at that time, so that the earth can flourish as it was meant to be. After a few decades, it will be so peaceful & wonderful that many souls from the realms will also be allowed to step on earth, so that they too can contribute well and come out of all the realms and join all of us in the New Universe. Slowly & steadily the earth's vibrations too will advance to a level to match that of the heavens and then we can say that the working of New Love is fully completed now. For this to happen, a few centuries will be needed and once achieved, all of God's plans will be set into motion as He had planned earth to be.

All new creatures & creations will change this earth forever. If you take a rebirth at that time, you will feel you are on a different planet. Never ever can you imagine what it will be like, as its whole atmosphere and everything on earth will change drastically. Even the creatures living at that time will be perfect in every way and mankind will treat them with the good love they deserve.

Working of New Love means a different way of living on earth. With these powers all people will also behave in a different way as they too will have grown up mentally & spiritually. They will not indulge in petty matters & gossip or think ways to spoil other's plans, but will instead think of ways to help and progress each other. A new way of communication too will emerge, which will shrink the world to a common platform. People will get instant knowledge all over the world and work will be done quickly & efficiently. More and more progress will improve communication even further and all will benefit from this all over the world. No one will be there who cannot access any information being given out for the common good of all. This way people will be united as, 'one people of good earth'. All good ways of communicating will open up doors also for spiritual communication. It will be very easy now for all to communicate with the good Spirit World and getting guidance from all of us too.

We will all wait for this exciting era to begin soon, where all will behave in a human way which is not existing now, as many are not giving good information and details to people who need them the most. They are not even helping others when they see them suffering. All this will exactly be the opposite, when the working of New Love is established, so please all of you, try your level best to imbibe the elements of New Love, so that the earth can become more and more better for all your fellow human beings. We love you all forever.

Energy of New Love will begin to flourish, once many have taken up this task well. Love, peace and harmony will grow with the powers of New Love, so with that, all will want to achieve it as soon as they can. They must be good first, and then achieve the elements one by one. As soon as all are achieved well, they will feel life is very different and they will experience a calm and soothing way of living. No more worries & stress & other negativities. They will be destroyed once New Love is achieved by each one of you.

The miracle of New Love is that these three elements work so well together, that it is hard to distinguish between them, once they are totally imbibed in you, as they are well merged into each energy. The only difficulty is to get them all in unison within you as only one or two will not give you the vibrations needed to destroy evil within and around you. With this, a new era of peace will come down on earth and it will flourish in a new way which can't be understood by you at present. All the work done will benefit mankind as a whole, so that each and every person will benefit from this peace. Good days are awaiting all of you, so start now and finish as soon as you can.

Another way the earth will flourish will be the way it will spread to all. No more different people, but it will unite all of you as one people of good earth. This will be the biggest blessing of the working of New Love, as this distinction is the main reason for unhappiness and wars amongst all. As all will think themselves as one good people of earth, they will also strive together to face all difficulties and problems, so the powers of all people together is something unimaginable now, as there are so many breakups between people of their own castes and creeds. Nothing will matter, as all will unify together and that is the time when evil will finally leave earth, never ever to return as it will be impossible for them to face mankind in unity. Just now they are taking advantage, as no one is united and there is war between all people and countries. Thus they will lose their advantage and will leave this good earth forever. God blesses you all with this good message of New Love.

Enough said about the working of New Love. New Love will originate from all good people, once they take up this task of achieving love, peace and harmony within themselves. Please do not underestimate the powers of New Love. Have faith in what we all are telling you and imbibe it as quickly as possible. New Love once set in motion, is the greatest blessing on earth and will be powered by God Almighty Himself and anyone who acquires these powers will be blessed by Him personally.

Great things will happen when great people get together and work well together. In the same way the powers of New Love will flow through these people to start a new chain of love, peace and harmony on good earth. Everyone who comes across its path will be protected and all will have the capacity to understand its powers and so all will achieve it sooner or later. Then the working of New Love will take place and all that we have explained earlier will happen and the earth will be the place where all will want to be, so all in the heavens too will want to come down and live on good earth in this era. Be good, pure, happy and be blessed by God Almighty always.

We all in the Spirit World are experiencing a lot of turmoil as the earth is undergoing a major change. The turmoil is with the way the people on the earth are living and this creates an atmosphere which is not liked by all in the good Spirit world. This is the reason why we are giving out so many messages to so many people to change their way of living and thinking. This turmoil can only be ended with the shift to happen, so now the question is, when will this happen. From the way things are going, it looks like we are approaching this event very soon, as the earth just cannot withstand all the pressure being put in it by destruction of its atmosphere and land. Large masses of trees are being destroyed every minute and the oceans and land are going through traumatic changes which the earth cannot support anymore. This needs to be balanced now and soon after the shift, the whole earth will become steady and peaceful and will need time to recover well. All things will progress after this event takes place, the earth, as well as all the living creatures on it. They will unify to create a good balance between them and the working of New Love will help this process tremendously. No bad things can continue forever and so this era will end and a new era of love, peace and harmony will emerge from its ashes. Great moments with great people and great creations will soon enhance the quality of life on earth, as it moves to the era of New Love.

Soon a stage will arrive on earth when the good powers of New Love are established well on good earth. With this stage, a new era of living will begin, and all will benefit from this era. A good time, where all good people will engage themselves in spreading this love to all around them. This will make it stronger and stronger with each passing day. New era of New Love will spread to all corners of the earth and that is when the work of working of New Love will begin. It will work in the absence of all negativity and peace will flourish throughout the good earth as promised by God Almighty. Era of New Love will usher in a new age of New Love of new and powerful things which will progress mankind to an era of even higher level than ever seen before. This will make all very comfortable and will give rise to a sense of belonging and brotherhood amongst all mankind.

Good things begin with small steps, good things are achieved with bigger steps and good things will remain with biggest steps taken by all. Be good, peaceful, happy and mankind will flourish as it should, in this good new era of New Love.

We will all work well together, as the working of New Love means working all together as one good people of good earth. All, means all of mankind must join together in order for the working of New Love to function seamlessly. If this can be achieved, then the working of New Love will transform earth into a paradise, like the good heavens and good Spirit World. It will be peaceful, beautiful, lovely and the earth and people and creatures and creations will bloom together and make the good earth a new earth, where there is only love, peace and harmony.

All are welcome to start this process as soon as they can and be blessed by God Almighty Himself.
